QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Did the lower court comply with the Fourth Amendment requirements (a)The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated; (b)and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause supported by oath or affirmation, when (i)Romp was seized at his workplace on a warrant for his arrest issued without probable cause and not supported by oath or affirmation, (ii)and was held in the Lucas County Correctional Center for 141 days, (111)made to endure a criminal trial, (iv)sentenced to imprisonment for one (1) year, (v)then in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals BRIEF FOR THE APPELLEE "The government concedes a technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9 since "the summons was issued upon an information and was not supported by a verified affidavit or otherwise supported by probable cause"?

2. Was the lower court required to comply with the Fifth Amendment requirements (a)No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, when (i)the lower court did not have probable cause supported by oath or affirmation, (b) nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, when (ii)the summons was not issued and served in accordance with the Rules of the Court, (iii)the warrant was issued based upon Romps non appearance/answer to a summons that did not have a verified complaint attached to the summons, (iv)the magistrate refers to "notice to appear" instead of saying "summonsed to appear"?

3. Did the lower court comply with the Sixth Amendment requirements (a)In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial when (i)Romp was held in the Lucas County Correctional Center for 141 days without a "committment order" of the court, (ii)the government attorney did not comply with the Speedy Trial Act (18 USC 3161(b)), (b)by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed when (iii)there is not a sworn complaint that a "crime" has been committed, (iv)a trial jury is impaneled before a grand jury indictment, (c)and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation (v) when the supposed "accusation" is not verified, (d)and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense when (vi) the magistrate denies Romps Assistance of Counsel from sitting at the "defendants table" but says that Romp may have the services of his Assistance of Counsel outside the courtroom.

4. (a)Did the U.S. Attorney, the Assistant U. S. Attornies, the Clerk of the Court, the deputy Clerk of Court, the Magistrate, the judges of the District Court, the judges law clerks and the Special Agents of the internal revenue service (i)conspire to injure and oppress Edward E. Romp in the free exercise and enjoyment of rights secured to him by the Constitution of the United States (as defined in Title 18 USC 241); (ii)under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, willfully subject Edward E. Romp, an inhabitant of the State of Ohio to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States (as defined in Title 18 USC 242)? (b)did the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals Judges join in with the above named parties when the Sixth Circuit Court denied Romps Emergency Motion for Release pending appeal AFTER the government conceded the governments "technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9" and the government attorney did not oppose Romps Emergency Motion for Release pending Appeal in the Appeals Court?

5. Does the United States District Court, whether it be by a magistrate or a judge, under the wording of the Sixth Amendment, have authority to deny Romp the presence, assistance and use of a person, who is not a member of the state bar association, in the actual courtroom to assist Romp in his defense, in whatever way Romp desires assistance, whether it be speaking at the direction of Romp, introducing of evidence, objecting to the prosecutors statements, examining or cross examing witnesses, or addressing the court and the jurors?

6. Is the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio Western Division bound to honor the Constitution of the State of Ohio in conducting the operation of the Criminal court of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio Western Division, the same as is required in a Civil court per 28 United States Code §1652

7. Are the United States District Courts required to explicit obedience and compliance with the Criminal Court Rules, that involve Rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, as ordered and adopted by the United States Supreme Court?

8. Can a defective arrest, one made without a probable cause supported by oath or affirmation, be cured later by a magistrates hearing in which there is STILL not a written statement made upon oath or affirmation that a crime has been committed or that Romp has committed a crime?

SUPREME COURT

OF THE UNITED STATES

October Term, 1988

EDWARD E. ROMP,

Petitioner,

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

TO THE HONORABLE ANTONIN SCALIA
ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT
OF THE UNITED STATES
AND CIRCUIT JUSTICE FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT
BEFORE DECISION BY COURT OF APPEALS

The petitioner, Edward E. Romp, respectfully prays that a writ of certiorari issue to review this case before judgment has been rendered by the United States Court of Appeals Sixth Circuit in United States vs Edward E. Romp, Appeals Court Case No 88-3354, District Court Case No 87-7071M.

OPINION BELOW

The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has not rendered judgment in this case, however the Sixth Circuit has denied an emergency motion for release after the United States has conceded "a technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9 since the summons was issued upon an information and was not supported by a verified affidavit or other wise supported by probable cause".

The ORDER of the Sixth Circuit does not address the issues brought up in the Emergency Motion, cites U.S.C. 21 (sic) § 7203 which has no bearing on this case, gives one court "cite" that does not apply to this case, and gives another court

"cite" that does not exist.

The Emergency Motion, The ORDER of the Sixth Circuit and the Motion for Review and Reconsideration is reprinted in Appendix A hereto.

JURISDICTION

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction to review this case before judgment by authority of 28 U.S.C.§2101(e) and Supreme Court Rules 17 and 18.

STATEMENT OF GROUNDS FOR JURISDICTION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

The JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE was imposed July 11, 1988. The document is number 127 on page 9 of the docket sheet.

A MOTION UNDER 28 USC Section 2255 was filed in the CRIMINAL CASE but the Clerk of Court assigned a CIVIL Case number C 88-7319. (Docket No. 85)

A MEMORANDUM AND ORDER IN CASE NO. v

C 88-7319 was DENIED by Judge Potter May 24, 1988 (Docket no. 87)

A MOTION TO CORRECT MEMORANDUM AND ORDER TO SHOW THE CRIMINAL CASE NO. 87-7071M was filed In the Criminal Case June 2, 1988 (Docket no. 89) and Affidavit (Docket No. 90). MOTION DENIED June 20, 1988 (Docket No. 93)

A second MOTION UNDER 28 USC § 2255 was filed June 27, 1988 in attempt to have the MOTION in the CRIMINAL CASE as specified by Rule 3(b) of the RULES SECTION 2255 PROCEEDINGS. ("the clerk of the district court shall file the motion and enter it on the docket in his office in the criminal action") This MOTION was assigned Civil case No. C88-7413

On July 5, 1988, Judge Potter DENIED the MOTION in Civil Case No. C88-7413 and also had "87-7071M" typed under the Civil Case Number. (Docket No. 108).

The government attorney in the BRIEF FOR APPELLEE filed in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in note "1" on page 1 stated "The government concedes a technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9 since the summons was issued upon an information and was not supported by a verified affidavit or otherwise supported by probable cause"

An EMERGENCY MOTION FOR RELEASE FROM IMPRISONMENT PENDING APPEAL BASED ON THE VIOLATION OF FEDERAL CRIMINAL RULE 5 AND THE DENIAL OF RIGHTS UNDER THE FOURTH AMENDMENT was received and filed by Leonard Green, Clerk on January 25, 1989. (see this motion recopied in the appendix)

An ORDER ENTERED BY ORDER OF THE COURT was filed Feb 21, 1989. (recopied in the appendix)

On March 13, 1989, Leonard Green, Clerk received and filed a MOTION FOR

REVIEW AND RECONSIDERATION BASED ON SIX (6) ERRORS IN THE ORDER FILED FEBRUARY 21.(recopied in the appendix)

The Statutory provision believed to confer on this Court jurisdiction for a writ of certiorari are:

(a) Supreme Court Rule 17.1.(a);

(b) Supreme Court Rule 18;

(c) 28 U.S.C. § 2101(e);

(d) Constitution of the United States Article VI Paragraph 2.

This petition and the "record of the case" with its Constitutional violations are a showing to the Supreme Court of "the imperative public importance to justify deviation from normal appellant practice and to require immediate settlement in this Court.

The "imperative public importance" mentioned in Rule 18 is the necessity for the Supreme Court to uphold the Constitution of the United States for all of "We the People".

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Romp was seized at his place of work, on privately owned property, on the basis of an arrest warrant issued by the magistrate when Romp did not "appear" in answer to a "purported" summons issued without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation, and which did not have a "complaint" attached, and which was not served in accordance with the Rules of court, and did not have a Return of Service of the purported Summons.

2. The District Court did not have a grand jury indictment. The "information" was not verified. Romp did not waive Indictment and was deprived of substantive due process of law.

3. The District Court denied a speedy trial, held Romp without a "committment order" in the Lucas County Correctional Center for one hundred forty-one (141) days, impaneled a petit (trial) jury before a grand jury indictment, and without the court having a document made upon oath or affirmation that Romp had committed a crime. The magistrate and the judge prohibited Romp from having Assistance of Counsel seated at the defendant's table because the person assisting Romp is not a member of the bar association.

4. The United States Attorney, the assistant United States Attorneys, the Clerk of the Court, the deputy Clerk of Court, the magistrate, the judges (2) of the District Court, the judges law clerks and the Special Agents of the internal revenue service did by their actions, namely (a) unconstitutional seizure, (b) denial of his liberty without a complaint made upon oath or affirmation, (c) refusal of effective counsel, (d) impaneled a trial jury in the absence of a criminal complaint, (e)attempted to coerce Romp to confess by signing a release upon a personal recognizance bond, (f) on two (2)occasions attempted to force Romp to accept a lawyer (member of the court) to "represent him"(Romp) (g) held a "probable cause" hearing that was out of time by the court rules in which the Special Agents of the internal revenue service did not make any statement under oath that Romp has committed a crime, (h) that all the above mentioned parties made or swore an oath to uphold the Constitution and knowingly did injure and oppress Romp in the free exercise and enjoyment of rights secured to Romp by the Constitution of the State of Ohio and the Constitution of the United States. Then the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals did not overrule the District Court in its Unconstitutional acts, and did not answer the issues in the EMERGENCY MOTION FOR RELIEF PENDING APPEAL after the government by the United States Attorney conceded a "technical violation" of Federal Criminal Rule 9.

5. The magistrate and the trial judge ordered that Romp could only have a person who is a member of the bar to represent Romp and to be seated at his table.

6. The Constitution of the State of Ohio in Article I section 10 (in part) says "In any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel". Such appearance and defense in person and with counsel does not require an inhabitant to relinquish a Constitutional Right and permit a lawyer who is a member of the court and of the Bar Association to "represent" him.

7. The District Court, the Clerk of Court and deputy clerks, the magistrate, the judges (2) and their law clerks, the U.S. Attorney and assistant U.S. Attorneys did willfully, maliciously and with intent ignore and refuse to obey the Constitution of the United States, and the Court Rules as promulgated by the United States Supreme Court.

8. The magistrate held a "probable cause" hearing on November 2, 1987. The Transcript of the November 2 hearing on page 20 at line 2: The COURT: Believe me, the defect that I think you perceived and the manner in which you were brought before this court has, as I understand your contentions, has, been cured. The government has shown probable cause under oath.

LACK OF

FEDERAL JURISDICTION
IN THE COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE

The District Court did not have jurisdiction of the person nor of the subject matter in the unConstitutional criminal prosecution of Edward E. Romp.

Title 28§1340 gives the district court original jurisdiction of any CIVIL action in matters concerning internal revenue. The prosecution of Romp was a criminal prosecution therefore the district court did NOT have jurisdiction under this title and section.

Title 18§3041 Power of courts and magistrates says "For any offense against the United States, the offender may. . ." The United States Attorney has not claimed that Romp committed any act that was an offense against the United States.

Title 18§3045 Internal Revenue

Violations. "Warrants of Arrest for violations of internal revenue laws may be issued by United States magistrates upon the COMPLAINT of a United States Attorney. The United States Attorney did NOT make a complaint upon oath or affirmation.

The United Stated District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, Western Division did not have subject matter jurisdiction because the United States Attorney did not comply with Title 18 §§3045, or the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rules 3, 4, 5, and 9.

REASONS TO JUSTIFY DEVIATION FROM NORMAL APPELLATE PRACTICE

The questions before the Supreme Court are substantial Constitutional questions that should be answered in the interest of justice.

The Supreme Court in Boyd v United States, 116 U.S. 616 at page 635 said:

> "It is the duty of the courts to be watchful for the constitutional rights of the citizen, against any stealthy encroachments thereon."

The judge has refused to be bound by the Constitution, and is not "holding their offices during good behavior".

The magistrate has not been given authority under the Constitution of the United States and he has refused to abide by the Rules pertaining to his office, that have been ORDERED by the Supreme Court.

Constitution for the United States
Article VI Paragraph 2.
This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Constitution for the United States
Article III Section 1.
The judicial power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The Judges, both of the supreme and inferior Courts shall hold their offices during good behavior, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation, which shall not be diminshed during their continuance in office.

The Judges of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States District Court have forgotten one of the great documents in the History of English Common Law, The MAGNA CARTA.

MAGNA CARTA
Article number 40
"To none will we sell, to none deny or delay, right or justice"

Article number 45
"We will not make men justices, constables, sheriffs, or bailiffs, unless they are such as know the law of the realm, and are minded to observe it rightly.

The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has not disciplined the United States District Court, but has sanctioned the UN-Constitutional proceedings in the lower court.

The Supreme Court is Created by the Constitution of the United States and must uphold The Constitution. The Creator is greater than the creation of the Creator.

The Supreme Court of the United States should exercise the Courts power of supervision over the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and make immediate settlement in this matter.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

I

THE ACTIONS OF AND THE PROCEEDINGS IN DISTRICT COURT IN THIS PROSECUTION CONFLICT WITH THE FOURTH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS ASSENTED AND RATIFIED THE ACTIONS OF THE DISTRICT COURT

The decision of the district court is so far contrary to the accepted meanings of the Fourth Amendment, and the Sixth Circuit's sanctioning of the acts of the district court that it is necessary for the Supreme Court to exercise its power of supervision over the Sixth Circuit and prevent further sanctioning of lawlessness in the lower courts.

The refusal of the Sixth Circuit and the District Court to consider the Fifth Circuit case of United States v Millican, 600 F.2d. 273, stating that it is not permissible to issue a warrant for arrest based upon a summons that does not have "a showing under oath of probable cause" is a conflict with the decision of another federal court of appeals on the same matter.

The District Court denied the defendant's motion under 28 U.S.C. §2255

II

THE PROCEEDINGS IN THE DISTRICT COURT DURING THE PROSECUTION OF THIS CASE CONFLICT WITH THE FIFTH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS ASSENTED AND RATIFIED THE ACTIONS OF THE DISTRICT COURT

The decision of the district court is so far contrary to the accepted meanings of the Fifth Amendment, and the Sixth Circuit's sanctioning of the acts of the district court that it is necessary for the Supreme Court to exercise its power of supervision over the Sixth Circuit and prevent further sanctioning of lawlessness in the lower courts.

III

THE DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS IN THIS PROSECUTION CONFLICT WITH THE SIXTH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS ASSENTED AND RATIFIED THE ACTIONS OF THE DISTRICT COURT

The decision of the district court is so far contrary to the accepted meanings of the Sixth Amendment, and the Sixth Circuit's sanctioning of the acts of the district court that it is necessary for the Supreme Court to exercise its power of supervision over the Sixth Circuit and prevent further sanctioning of lawlessness in the lower courts.

IV

THE U.S. ATTORNEY, THE ASSISTANT U. S. ATTORNEYS, THE CLERK OF THE COURT, THE DEPUTY CLERK OF COURT, THE MAGISTRATE, THE JUDGES OF THE DISTRICT COURT, THE JUDGES LAW CLERKS AND THE SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DID IN CONCERT WITH EACH OTHER, INJURE AND OPPRESS EDWARD E. ROMP IN THE FREE EXERCISE AND ENJOYMENT OF RIGHTS SECURED TO HIM BY THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

The seizure under "color of law", which is defined in Black's Law Dictionary, Revised Fourth Edition as, "the appearance or semblance, without the substance, of legal right" of Romp is kidnapping, the taking by force of a person against his will without lawful authority is UNREASONABLE.

The refusal of the Sixth Circuit and the District Court to consider the Fifth Circuit case of United States v Millican,

600 F.2d. 273, stating that it is not permissible to issue a warrant for arrest based upon a summons that does not have "a showing under oath of probable cause" is a conflict with the decision of another federal court of appeals on the same matter.

U

THE MAGISTRATE AND THE JUDGE ASSIGNED TO THIS CASE, BY THEIR ORDERS REFUSED ROMP THE PRESENCE AND ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL FOR HIS DEFENSE IN A CRIMINAL TRIAL IN THE COURTROOM.

The magistrate refused to permit Romp to have seated at his table a person, who is not a member of the Bar Association nor of the court, to assist Romp in his defense. The magistrate required Romp to file in the court the "Qualification" of his "Assistance of Counsel", then after receiving the "required filing" the magistrate referred the matter to the judge assigned to the case. The United States Attorney filed a Brief in Opposition to permit Romp have "lay" counsel. The Judge's ORDER denied Romp the Constitutional Right to have effective assistance of counsel seated at the defendant's table. The Judge did permit Romp on several occasions to consult with his "Assistance of Counsel" off the record and outside the courtroom, but in the area in which the spectators are seated.

VI

THE DISTRICT COURT, IN ITS PROPER TITLE "UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO, WESTERN DIVISION" RECOGNIZES THAT THE COURT IS SITUATED IN THE STATE OF OHIO AND THE COURT IS REQUIRED TO OBEY STATE LAW, BUT REFUSED TO OBEY THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

The Constitution of the State of Ohio in Article I Section 10 says in part:

> "In any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to defend in person and with counsel."

Title 28 United States Code Section 1652 requires that the laws of the state shall be the rule of decision in civil actions.

The Constitution of the State of Ohio is the Supreme Law of the State of Ohio and the United States District Court must recognize and comply with it in civil matters, and CRIMINAL matters also because a criminal court is "any court".

VII

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO, WESTERN DIVISION BEING A COURT INFERIOR TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES REFUSED TO OBEY AND COMPLY WITH THE FEDERAL RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, THE SAID RULES BEING

PROMULGATED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has not upheld or protected Romp from unConstitutional prosecution, nor has it required the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, Western Division to obey the Supreme Law of the Land and the Court Rules~ applying to the procedural operation of the District Court, nor has it answered the issues of the Emergency Motion but has used subterfuge and non sequitors in denying the motion.

VIII

THE MAGISTRATE HELD A "PROBABLE CAUSE" HEARING AFTER THE ARREST WARRANT WAS ISSUED AND EXECUTED, AND AFTER ROMP HAS BEEN HELD IN THE ABSENCE OF A WRITTEN STATEMENT MADE UPON OATH, STATING THAT ROMP HAS COMMITTED A CRIME. ONCE AN ARREST HAS BEEN MADE UNLAWFULLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONALY THERE IS NO LATER ACT THAT CAN BE PERFORMED TO CORRECT THE UNLAWFUL ARREST BUT

UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE.

Federal Criminal Rule 4(a) requires probable cause to be determined "if it appears from the complaint or from an affidavit or affidavits filed with the complaint, that there is probable cause. The finding of probable cause may be based upon hearsay evidence BUT some person must make an oath to support the probable cause. A probable cause hearing after the arrest has been executed does not meet the requirements of Rule 4(a).

CONCLUSION

The law concerning this case is well settled and stable, since the "law" is the Law of the Land - CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

The facts (complete record of the case) can not be changed. The attorney for the government has conceded in his Appellant's Brief to the Sixth Circuit Court "a technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9", which in substance is the requirements of the Fourth Amendment.

In the history of the Supreme Court of the United States there has not been a published decision concerning the denial and violation of Rights as in this case.

The Supreme Court of the United States should grant certiorari in this case in the interest of justice, because of the issues of Right's that were so flagrantly and maliciously violated by the District Court, and sanctioned by the Sixth Circuit.

> "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them". Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U. S. 436, 491

In view of the conflict of the decision below with the Constitution of the United States, the Court may wish to consider summary reversal and grant the relief requested in the Appellant's Brief in the Sixth Circuit.

DECLARATION

I, EDWARD E. ROMP, certify and declare that all of the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

I further certify and declare that the foregoing of this document, and all the papers and documents filed in the Court of Appeals and the United States District Court have been prepared by my assistance of counsel, Wallace C. Terhune, that he is not a member of any bar association or of any court and he is not holding himself out to the public as a "lawyer" nor as an "attorney", and

That Magistrate James G. Carr in the transcript -Arraignment, Oct 2, 1987 page 26 (JOINT APPENDIX - page 262 filed by Romp) at line 11 stated:

"Mr. Tarhune will not permitted under circumstance to act as an attorney capacity permitted to sign his name to anything that's filed by you nor will he be permitted to sit at counsel table and address the Court and speak to the Court on your behalf. It's indicated however, you have whatever contact, he can do whatever work he wants with you outside the courtroom. . . ."

and that Edward E. Romp has contracted for the services of Wallace C. Terhune.

Signed and dated this 27 day of March, 1989 while imprisoned at Terre Haute Indiana, prisoner number 41191-060.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

POTTER, J.:

The Court has before it defendant's second motion Under 28 U.S.C.§2255 to vacate, set aside or correct sentence. Under 28 U.S.C.§2255, the sentencing court is not required to entertain a second motion for similar relief. Furthermore, this cause is on appeal. There are no extraordinary circumstances requiring this Court to consider defendant's motion.

THEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, good cause appearing, it is ORDERED that defendant's motion to vacate, set aside or correct sentence be, and hereby is, DENIED.

ORDER

Before: KEITH, MARTIN and RYAN, Circuit Judges.

Defendant Romp proceeding pro se, has filed a third motion for bail pending appeal from his conviction on four counts of failing to file federal income tax returns in violation 21 (sic) U.S.C.§7203. In his current motion for bail pending appeal, defendant presents an argument not previously raised by defendant or considered by this court.

Upon consideration of defendant's argument, we conclude that defendant has failed to establish the existence of a substantial question likely to result in an order or reversal or for a new trial. United States v. Pollard, 778 F.2d 1177 (6th Cir. 1985); United States v. Vance, 857 F.2d 166 (6th Cir. 1988). Accordingly, defendant's motion for bail pending appeal is denied.

EMERGENCY MOTION FOR RELEASE FROM IMPRISONMENT PENDING APPEAL BASED ON THE VIOLATION OF FEDERAL CRIMINAL RULE 9 AND THE DENIAL OF RIGHTS UNDER THE FOURTH AMENDMENT

COMES NOW Defendant/Appellant, Edward E. Romp, In Propria Persona with Assistance of (lay) Counsel, to move this Court in EMERGENCY ACTION for a PROCEDURAL ORDER of this Court granting the IMMEDIATE release from unlawful, unConstitutional imprisonment, pending the outcome of the appeal in this case.

This is a MOTION FOR PROCEDURAL ORDER under Rule 27(b) and "may be acted upon at any time, without awaiting a response thereto".

This Court has before it, the Appellant's Brief, the Brief for Appellee, the Reply Brief of Appellant, the Joint Appendix (as prepared by Appellant) and the complete record of the case, which was released for transmittal to the Sixth Circuit by request to the Clerk of the District Court.

The United States Government by and through William J. Edwards, Acting United States Attorney and Thomas O. Secor, Assistant United States Attorney on page 1 of the Brief for the Appellee in footnote [1] and footnote [3] on page 12. have admitted and confessed that the government did not have probable cause supported by oath to issue summons, warrant or to prosecute Edward E. Romp.

[1]The government concedes a technical violation of Federal Criminal Rule 9 since th summons was issued upon an information and was not supported by a verified affidavit or otherwise supported by probable cause.

[3]The summons was not correctly issued upon probable cause as Federal Criminal Rule 9 requires.

Pages 1 and 12 of the BRIEF FOR APPELLEE are attached following the signature and preceding the certificate of service.

Federal Rules Of Appellate Procedure requirements:

Appelate Rule 8

This motion is made to the court of appeals or to a judge thereof.

Application to the district court is not practicable for the following reasons

1. The district court permitted this case to go to trial with the full knowledge that there was not a statement made upon oath charging Romp with a crime.

2. An Amicus Curiae Brief was filed by Wallace C. Terhune, advising the court of the errors in seizing Romp.

3. Magistrate Carr struck the Amicus Curiae Brief.

4. The district court denied the Habeas Corpus application filed by Terhune, in effect suspending the ancient writ.

5. The district court denied the Habeas Corpus application filed by Romp, in effect suspending the ancient writ.

6. The district court impaneled a petit (trial) jury and put the jury on oath in the absence of probable cause supported by oath.

7. The clerk of the district court changed a Motion under 28 USC 2255, which should have been a motion in the Criminal case, to a filing as a new Civil Action.

8. A second motion under 28 USC 2255 was filed. Judge Potter denied relief under 28 USC 2255.

9. The district court has ignored Romp's objections to this unConstitutional criminal prosecution.

10. The district court has permitted and condoned the acts of the United States Attorney in permitting the unConstitutional seizure of Edward E. Romp.

11. The district court has permitted and condoned the acts of the United States Attorney in permitting the unConstitutional trial of Edward E. Romp.

12. The district court did not have Constitutional jurisdiction to force a criminal trial upon Romp, because a summons and then warrant must be made upon probable cause and supported by oath. The probable cause supported by oath is equivalent to a sworn "complaint".

13. WITHOUT a "complaint" (written statement made upon oath) there is no basis for a criminal prosecution.

Relief is requested for the reason that Edward E. Romp has been denied his liberty in violation of the Bill of Rights. Romp was restrained of his liberty for one hundred forty-one (141) days in the Lucas County Correctional Center before the trial and has been unconstitutionally and unlawfully imprisoned since August 1, 1988, and is in the Terre Haute Indiana "honor farm".

All these days Romp has been denied Constitutional Rights without a statement made upon oath AND NOW THE GOVERNMENT CONCEDES a "technical violation" of Federal Criminal Rule 9.

Quoting from the NOTES OF ADVISORY COMMITTE ON RULES following rule 9

> "The provision of Rule 9(a) that a warrant may be issued on the basis of an information only if the latter is supported by oath is necessitated by the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United State. See Albrecht v. United States, 273 U.S. 1, 5, 47 S.Ct.250, 71 L. Ed. 505."

The "technical violation" of Rule 9(a) is a violation and denial of the Fourth Amendment.

Appelate Rule 9

> (a) The court of appeals or a judge thereof may order the release of the appellant pending the appeal. . . . The court of appeals or a judge thereof may order the release of the appellant pending disposition of the motion.

This court has the authority to ORDER the release of Edward E. Romp pending the appeal.

The reason for the relief requested, Edward E. Romp has been unConstitutionally imprisoned.

The facts relied upon are the "concede-ing" of the government that Romp was seized in violation of Article IV of the Bill of Rights, also called the Fourth Amendment, by and through WILLIAM J.

EDWARDS, Acting United States Attorney, Northern District of Ohio and THOMAS O. SECOR, Assistant United States Attorney.

The Grounds on which this motion is based is the Constitution for the United States of America and the Bill of Rights attached thereto as the first ten amendment.

Based on the "concede-ing" by the government by and through the United States Attorney's (acting and assistant) this court should order the immediate release of Edward E. Romp from imprisonment pending the outcome of this appeal.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On September 10, 1987, a four (4) count information was filed against Edward E. Romp. (R-2). The information alleged that Romp willfully failed to file his personal income returns for the calendar years 1981 through 1984, in violation of Title 26, Section 7203, United States Code. (R.2). On September 11, 1987, a summons was issued directing Romp to appear for arraignment at 9:00 a.m.on September 21, 1987.[1] When Romp failed to appear, Magistrate James G. Carr issued an arrest warrant.

In the afternoon of September 21, 1988(sic), Romp was arrested and brought before Magistrate Carr. Romp was advised of the nature of the charges against him and the critical importance of retaining counsel or allowing the court to appoint an attorney for him. (R97: Magistrate Carr at TR 8-12). Neverless Romp insisted on representing himself. (R.97: Romp At TR 9). The proceeding concluded with Romp being detained without bail, since Romp refused to submit to fingerprinting and an interview by the pre-trial relese officer. (R.97: Romp at TR 14).

On September 23, 1987, a proceeding was held wherein Romp appeared with "standby" court appointed counsel. (R.103: Magistrate Carr at TR 3-5). At this hearing , the Detention Order was vacated and Romp ordered released when he satisfied the following conditions:

a. The signing of an unsecured $25,000.00 recognizance bond;

b. the acceptance by a responsible adult of the obligation of insuring the defendant's appearance at future court proceedings;

c. periodic reporting on a schedule and in a manner to be set by the United States Probation and Parole Service, and compliance with such conditions as they might impose;

WHETHER AN ARREST, MADE UPON A WARRANT ISSUED WITHOUT A PRIOR DETERMINATION OF OF PROBABLE CAUSE, BUT AFTER ROMP FAILED TO APPEAR PURSUANT TO A SUMMONS, PRECLUDED FURTHER PROSECUTION WHEN A PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING WAS HELD SUBSEQUENT TO THE ARREST

Romp contends that since the arrest warrant had been issued without a finding of probable cause, any subsequent proceeding against him were tainted by an illegal arrest which precluded any further prosecution of his case. The government must concede Romp was arrested upon a warrant issued by the Magistrate without a showing of probable cause, after Romp faild to appear pursuant to a summons[3] from the court to answer the information. This defect was subsequently cured by the Magistrate holding a preliminary hearing wherein probable cause was established.

Even if the defect was not cured by the subsequent probable cause determination, the defect would not preclude further prosecution or be a defense to an otherwise valid conviction.

Support for the proposition that the defect was a curable one and that the Magistrate followed the proper procedure when curing the defect may be found in United States v. Millican 600 F.2d. 273 (5th Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 445 U. S. 915 (1980). In Millican the defendant appeared before the court upon a summons unsupported by oath or affirmation. The information charged the same offense as here, a violation of Title 26, Section 7203, United States Code. The defendant moved to dismiss the information since it was not supported by oath or verification and further argued that the defective because it was also unsupported by oath or affirmation. At no time prior to trial was a probable cause showing made by the government. Although the court found that a finding

MOTION FOR REVIEW AND RECONSIDERATION

BASED ON SIX (6) ERRORS IN THE

ORDER FILED FEBRUARY 21

COMES NOW Defendant/Appellant, Edward E. Romp, In Propria Persona with Assistance of (lay) Counsel, to move this Court to REVIEW AND RECONSIDER the decision of Circuit Judges KEITH, MARTIN and RYAN, entered by ORDER OF THE COURT and filed Feb 21, 1989.

This ORDER contains six (6) errors.

ERROR NUMBER ONE

The Emergency Motion filed January 25, 1989 was for RELEASE PENDING APPEAL BASED ON THE VIOLATION OF FEDERAL CRIMINAL RULE 9 AND THE DENIAL OF RIGHTS UNDER THE FOURTH AMENDMENT. In the second paragraph on page 1 "This EMERGENCY MOTION is based on facts that are NEWLY RECOGNIZED by the government. Romp has contended from the date of his seizure the same facts conceded by the government".

ERROR NUMBER TWO

The ORDER says "in violation of 21 U.S.C. section 7203". Title 21 is Food and Drugs. Title 21 does not pertain to this case.

ERROR NUMBER THREE

From the statement of the order "In his current motion for bail pending appeal, defendant presents an argument not previously raised by defendant or considered by this court". It appears from this statement that the HONORABLE JUDGES KEITH, MARTIN and RYAN have not read the EMERGENCY MOTION and have possibly confused this decision with another case, or maybe a clerical error in the transcription of the judges notes.

ERROR NUMBER FOUR

"we conclude that defendant has failed to establish the existence of a substantial question likely to result in an order for reversal or for a new trial". The willful, malicious denial of RIGHTS guaranteed by the BILL OF RIGHTS is certainly a SUBSTANTIAL QUESTION that should likely result in reversal, if not in this court then certainly in the Supreme Court.

ERROR NUMBER FIVE

The case cited as authority United States v. Pollard 778 F.2d 1177 (6th Cir. 1985) is a case concerning prosecution for the sale of FOOD STAMPS to undercover agents of the United States Department of Agriculture. The Department of Agriculture does not pertain to this case.

ERROR NUMBER SIX

The other case cited as authority United States v Vance, 857 F.2d 166 (6th Cir. 1988) is NON EXISTENT. See page 166 of 857 F.2d attached. In searching the index of cases for the sixth circuit in volume 857 there is not a listing for a "Vance".

These six errors are the basis of this motion to review and reconsider the ORDER of the court.

This error filled ORDER is a non sequitor and could be a subterfuge, and a Fabian delaying tactic. Whatever is the basis for these flagrant errors requires correction.

It should also be noted that the United States Attorney did NOT answer or file any objections to this EMERGENCY MOTION.

The ORDER filed Feb 21, 1989 is a travesty of justice. In light of the six (6) errors, this Court of Appeals should review and reconsider the Emergency Motion filed Jan 25, 1989 and issue an ORDER FOR RELEASE PENDING APPEAL.

RULES AND STATUTES

Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

Rule 1. Scope

These rules govern the procedure in all criminal proceedings in the courts of the United States, as provided in Rule 54(a); and, whenever specifically provided in one of the rules, to preliminary, supplementary, and special proceedings before United States magistrates and at proceedings before state and local officers.

Rule 2. Purpose and Construction

These rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every criminal proceeding. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay.

Rule 3. The Complaint

The complaint is a written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be made upon oath before a magistrate.

Rule 4. Arrest Warrant or Summons upon Complaint

(a) Issuance. If it appears from the complaint, or from an affidavit or affidavits filed with the complaint, that there is probable cause to believe tht an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, a warrant for the arrest of the defendant shall issue to any officer authorized by law to execute it. Upon the request of the attorney for the government a summons instead of a warrant shall issue. More than one warrant or summons may issue on the same complaint. If the defendant fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant shall issue.

(b) Probable Cause. The finding of probable cause may be based upon hearsay evidence in whole or in part.

(c) Form

(1) Warrant. The warrant shall be signed by the magistrate and shall contain the name of the defendant or, if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged in the complaint. It shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought before the nearest available magistrate.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before a magistrate at a stated time and place.

Fed. R. Crim P. 4

(d) Execution or Service; and Return.

(1)By Whom. The warrant shall be executed by a marshal or by some other officer authorized by law. The summons may be served by any person authorized to serve a summons in a civil action.

(2)Territorial Limits. The warrant may be executed or the summons may be served at any place within the jurisdiction of the United States.

(3)Manner. The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, but upon request he shall show the warrant to the defendant as soon as possible. If the officer does not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, he shall then inform the defendant of the offense charged and of the fact that a warrant has been issued. The summons shall be served upon a defendant by delivering a copy to him personally, or by leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein and by mailing a copy of the summons to the defendant's last known address.

Rule 5. Initial Appearance
Before the Magistrate
